1. Please complete the information above.
2. Read the statement below, and if you choose, sign where indicated.

Under the federal law entitled the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, students are given the right to inspect their records, including letters of recommendation. While we will consider all letters of recommendation carefully, we believe that in many instances letters written in confidence are of greater utility in the assessment of a student's qualifications, abilities, and promise.

We invite you, therefore, but do not require you to sign the following waiver.

I expressly waive any rights I may have to access to this evaluation letter under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, or any other law, regulation, or policy.
