

Gain Penn State credits through NATCA Academy training

Did you know that your NATCA Academy training qualifies you for Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) from Penn State World Campus for programs like labor and employment relations or organizational leadership? To earn college credit*, successfully complete these courses:

NATCA Academy Courses	Penn State Credits	World Campus Courses
Basic Representative Training (BRT)	1.5	LER 434 Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration
Advanced Representative Training (ART)	1.5	LER 434 Collective Bargaining and Contract Administration
Arbitration Advocacy Training I (AAT-1)	1.5	LER 437 Workplace Dispute Resolution
Arbitration Advocacy Training II (AAT-2)	1.5	LER 437 Workplace Dispute Resolution
Legislative Activism Training	0.5	LER 496 Independent Studies
Advanced Legislative Activism Training	1.0	LER 496 Independent Studies
Secretary-Treasurer Training	0.5	LER 496 Independent Studies
Collaborative Skills Training	0.5	LER 496 Independent Studies

*state regulations may apply

Credit by Portfolio Benefit

NATCA members can earn Credit by Portfolio by submitting a short written document that describes:

- the knowledge and skills acquired through NATCA Academy training
- how NATCA Academy training is used in their current role

For more information, contact Professor Paul Clark, Director of the School of Labor and Employment Relations, at pfc2@psu.edu.

Other NATCA Alliance Benefits

Penn State World Campus understands that pursuing a degree is an investment, and to assist you, the World Campus alliance with NATCA provides:

- a 5% tuition reduction on all Penn State World Campus degree and certificate programs
- a deferred payment plan that allows you to pay your tuition in installments
- the opportunity to acquire your education from a top military-friendly university

Learn about benefits by visiting worldcampus.psu.edu/military.

Learn more at worldcampus.psu.edu/natca

